Psalm 77

Asaph cried out in his darkness. (vv 1-9)

He _____.

He _____.

He _____.

- (vv 7-9) Never doubt in the darkness what God has told you in the light – He loves you and always will.

Asaph redirected his thoughts. (vv 10-12)

He _____.

- Recalling all God had done in his past changed Asaph’s outlook on his present.

The Napkin Exercise. (List the blessings of your recent past. List five people who love you.)

Asaph magnified God. (vv 13-20)

He _____ . (magnified)

- Change “I” and “my” to “You” and “Your” and watch worship change your outlook.

Asaph magnified God because...

- God’s ways are _____ . (v 13a)
God can be trusted, even if He can’t be figured out.
- God’s power is _____ . (v 14)
God can do all things, even if it seems impossible.
- God’s care is _____ . (v 15)
God can see you, even if you can’t see Him.

TAKE ACTION: In the coming week, magnify God rather than your problems!
